Monday Morning Marketing Meeting

This Week's Topics: Come Join the open discussion!

Every Monday, from 8:30 AM to 9:30 AM, the Oakland Association of REALTORS® hosts the Monday Morning Marketing Meeting. Join a friendly group of real estate professionals to discuss new listings, buyer's wants and needs, price changes and adjustments, inspections and loans and financing too! Interesting speakers keep us updated on all kinds of real estate topics.

Our OAR auditorium provides free Internet access, a projector and screen and a microphone. If you have a new listing, here's your chance to sell it to an engaged audience. Everyone has an opportunity to contribute and your next closing could very well be with a fellow MMMM attendee!

Parking is free and coffee, tea and goodies are available - there's no better way to start your Monday and start your week!
